

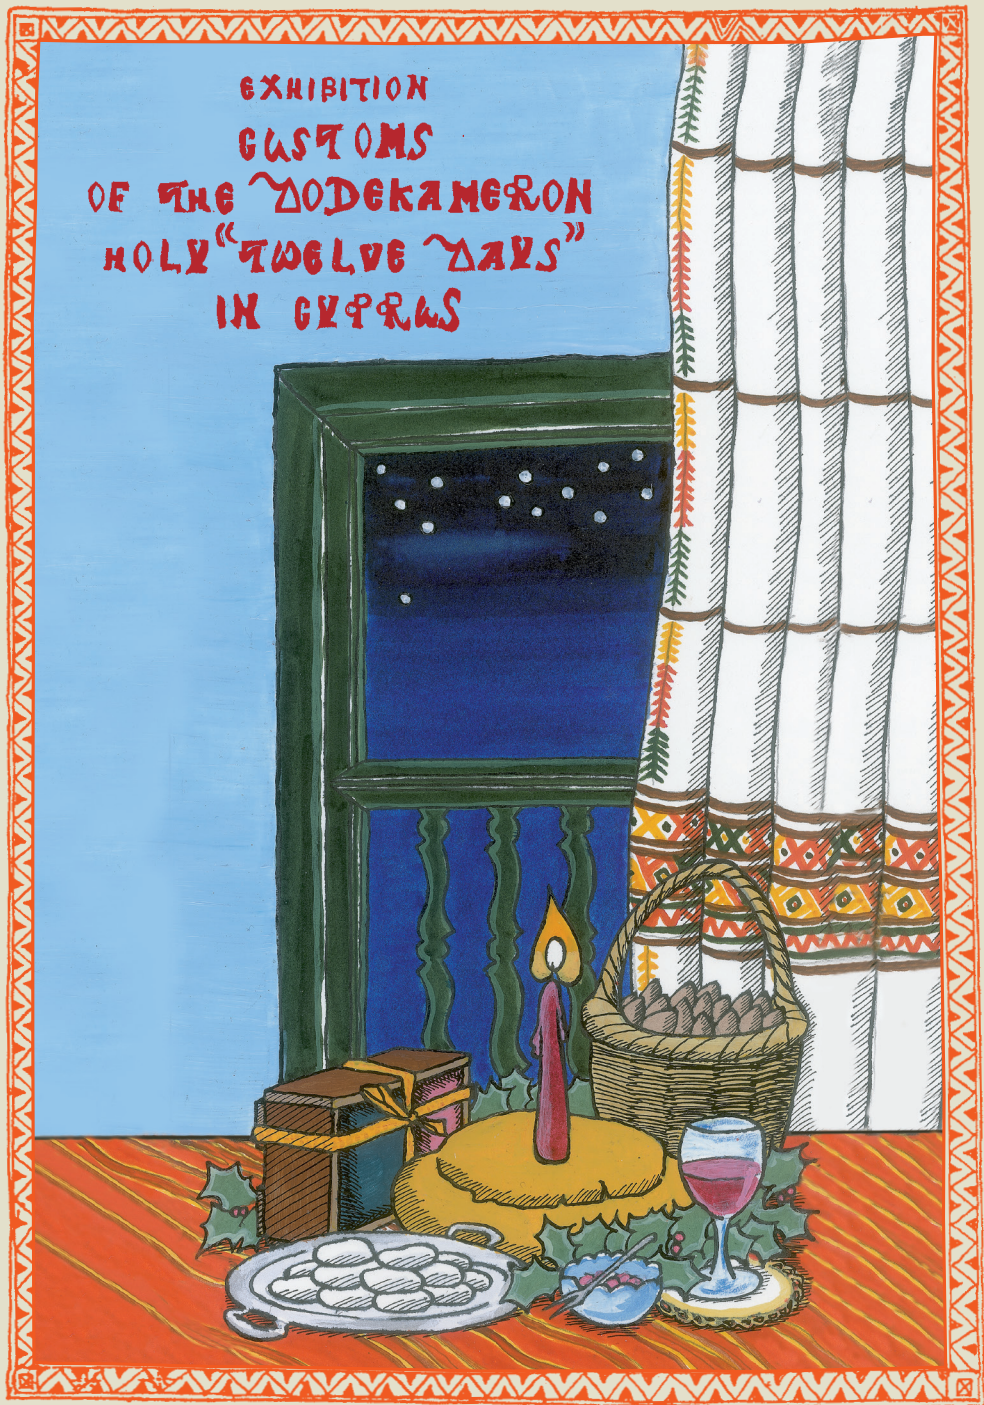

EXHIBITION
CUSTOMS
OF THE ΔΟΔΕΚΑΜΗΡΟΝ
HOLY "TWELVE DAYS"
IN GREECE

The Synodic Office of Pilgrimage Tours of the Church of Cyprus, the Cyprus Police - Drug Law Enforcement Unit, the HELP2LIVE Charity Foundation, and the Director of the National Ethnographic Museum in Warsaw,
dr Adam Czyżewski,

have the pleasure of inviting you at the Exhibition

Customs of the Dodekameron Holy “Twelve Days” in Cyprus on Wednesday 15 November 2017 at 17.30 at The National Ethnographic Museum in Warsaw.

The Exhibition will be opened by the Bishop of Mesaoria Mr. Gregorios

who will also perform the ritual cutting of the ‘Vasilopita’ New Year’s Cake (the lucky one to find the coin hidden in the cake will win a 5-day travel package to Cyprus).

The opening will be addressed by His Beatitude Sawa, Orthodox Metropolitan of Warsaw and All Poland and Mr. Constantinos Zackheos, Director of Help2Live Charity Foundation on behalf of the Chairman of the Foundation, Mr Dipak Kumar, at the presence of the Assistant Chief of the Cyprus Police Mr. Stylianos Papatheodorou.

A Reception with traditional Cypriot Christmas dishes will follow, with the accompaniment of Hymns and Cypriot Carols from the choir of the Orthodox Church of Poland.

Demonstration of traditional Cypriot Christmas kneading, and hagiography.

Duration of Exhibition: 15 - 22 November 2017 (closed on 20 November).

Free Entrance.

Information tel: + 48 22 827 76 41-46, www.ethnomuseum.pl.

RSVP: sekretariat@ethnomuseum.pl

National Ethnographic Museum in Warsaw, ul.Kredytowa 1, 00-056 Wawszawa.

Exhibition Organisers

Cyprus Police -
Drug Law Enforcement Unit
www.police.gov.cy

Synodic Office of Pilgrimage Tours of the Church of Cyprus www.churchofcyprus.org.cy

Charity Foundation
www.help2live.eu

National Ethnographic
Museum
in Warsaw

Supporter

Cyprus Tourism
Organisation
www.visitcyprus.com

Sponsor of the Travel Package to Cyprus

www.travelorama.com.cy

XENOS TRAVEL
by Royal Holidays
www.xenotravel.com.cy